OCTOBER 2010

SEAGULL RECEIVES MAJOR BEQUEST

Seagull Industries for the Disabled has received a bequest of over $200,000 from the estate of Harold and Wanda Braner.

The Braners, former residents of Palm Beach Gardens, were long-time supporters of Seagull Industries. Seagull Executive Director Fred Eisinger has announced the formation of the Harold and Wanda Braner Fund, which will be used to support and expand education and work programs for persons with developmental disabilities.

Donations may be made to the Braner Fund by contacting adichele@seagull.org or calling 561.842.5814 x. 111 Mrs.

Braner was also an active member of the Exchangettes Club of the Northern Palm Beaches. At the September Meeting, the Exchangettes devoted their program to a memorial for Wanda and recognition of her donation to Seagull Industries. Exchangette members Doris Karlick and Dawn Darby spoke on their personal remembrances of Wanda and her commitment to her family and community.

NEW FROM SCHOOL

Seagull Academy for Independent Living has added two new staff members: Amy Seigel-Brown, guidance counselor and Lisa Louissaint, paraprofessional, as well as 10 new students. The school is about to kick off its PBC School District Cafeteria Work Training Program, which will instruct students in fundamentals for success in community-based jobs. Many students have already mastered these professional skills and progressed toward their goals of independence by obtaining employment or professional licensing. Mark G. has received a Security License "D";

Grace S. is newly employed by the West Palm Beach JCC Child Development Center; Sal T.-R. has just started a job at the Bodega Market in Lake Worth; Patrick S. has advanced to OJT (on the job training) at Best Buy in Palm Beach Gardens and Nataly O. is obtaining Florida Board Certification licensing in cosmetology. Marty Hester Rogge, Seagull Employment Specialist, comments "We are extremely proud of these students for taking the initiative towards advancing in their chosen vocations. Congratulations to them all!"
