Fran Hancock, Anne Dichele, Doris Karlick and Dawn Darby remember Harold and Wanda Braner at the September Exchangettes Meeting

Seagull Industries for the Disabled is pleased to announce the receipt of a bequest of over $200,00 from the estate of Harold and Wanda Braner. The Braners, former residents of Palm Beach Gardens, were long-time supporters of Seagull Industries where their son was a client in the Work Achievement Center.

Mrs. Braner was also an active member of the Exchangettes Club of the Northern Palm Beaches. At the September Meeting, the Exchangettes devoted their program to a memorial for Wanda and recognition of her donation to Seagull Industries. Exchangette members Doris Karlick and Dawn Darby spoke on their personal remembrances of Wanda and her commitment to her family and community.

Anne Dichele, Seagull's Director of Development and Public Relations, announced the formation of the Harold and Wanda Braner Fund. Donations can be made to the Braner Fund by contacting adichele@seagull.org or calling 561.842.5814 x. 111. The Braner Fund will be used to support and expand education and work programs for persons with developmental disabilities.

Fred Eisinger and Jennifer Jones stuff envelopes for Celebrity Chef

Save the Date! On Thursday November 18, 2010 at 11:00 a.m, Seagull will combine cooking and charity at the Celebrity Chef Luncheon, the first in a series of fundraising events featuring accomplished chefs and delectable cuisine.

The event will take place at the Brazilian Court Hotel in Palm Beach and with tips on holiday entertaining presented by Café Boulud Executive Chef Zach Bell and Pastry Chef Arnaud Chavigny. Cost of the event is $125.00 and includes the chef demonstrations, lunch, autographed recipes and valet parking. Funds raised from the event will be used to purchase athletic equipment for the high school students at Seagull Academy. Jennifer Jones of the Junior League of the Palm Beaches and Judy Eisinger of Yudit Design are the event Co-Chairs. To become a sponsor, committee member or purchase seats, please call Anne Dichele at 561.842.5814. x.111

Seagull Board members, staff and volunteers braved the rain and participated in Clematis by Night on August 26th. Everyone smiled through the soggy night and had a great time raising nearly $500 for the Seagull programs. Thanks to Karin Mannchen, Gerard Conforti, Cate MacGlashan, Marty Rogge, Karen Rea, Andrea Woodard, Angenitta Ward, Robin Soule, Patricia Banks, Tom Arth, Pat Fossett, Roger Stevens, Candice Earl, Bob Rogers, Donald Hutley, Christine Farley and Ellen Hoffacker.

Janiqua and Marisel learn the art of debate at the FYL Conference

This summer students Janiqua F. and Marisel C. and teacher Joyce O'Hara received a grant from the Able Trust and were invited to represent Seagull Academy for Independent Living at the Florida Youth Leadership Forum (YLF). YLF brings rising juniors and seniors together for a weekend retreat in Tallahassee to learn about community and academic resources, career options and personal leadership. In addition to professional development, the young women had the opportunity to build new friendships with students from around the state. On the first day of school, Janiqua and Marisel shared their YLF experiences with their classmates using their personally created PowerPoint presentation.

Ms. O'Hara says that the growth in these students has been remarkable. "Both of these young ladies were extremely quiet and reserved last school year, but they have already stepped into more peer leadership roles. They really want to return to YLF next summer. Janiqua has already completed the necessary community service hours to qualify and Marisel is well on her way. All of us at Seagull Academy are enormously proud of them."

Seagull Industries is renovating a new building for the school and Executive Director Fred Eisinger is hoping that students will be at their new location by the second semester of the school year. Seagull Academy welcomes support from the business community. To learn how you can form a work partnership with students, make a contribution, or about named giving opportunities at the new school, please contact Anne Dichele at 561.842.5814 x. 111.

These are tough times.

You know that better than anyone else. If you have to downsize, don't let your employees leave without telling them about Florida KidCare.

Florida KidCare is low-cost health insurance for children birth through 18. As thousands of people across Florida lose their employers' health benefits, Florida KidCare is proving to be the best, most affordable option for families. By offering quality health care coverage for children, Florida KidCare may provide your staff with the help they're going to need during the coming days. Don't let your employees' children miss out on valuable coverage. Encourage your employees to apply for Florida KidCare for their kids by distributing these paper applications.

Families can also apply:

- Online at www.floridakidcare.org
- By fax at 1-866-867-0054
- Via email at apply@healthykids.org

In these tough times, do the right thing. Help keep Florida's children covered.
